Sandwich Soul in Concert – Celebrating Sandwich

Sandwich, MA – February 2014 – Sandwich 375 Committee is proud to announce the Sandwich Soul Concert, February 28th, 7 pm, at Sandwich High School. Tickets are $10.00 for adults and $8.00 for students and senior citizens.

Sandwich Soul is the Sandwich High School Advanced Choir that was formed in 2012. Melinda Lasit, Choral Director and Kevin Lasit, Theatrical Director/Choreographer, in only a few years have molded a group of teens into an award winning choir that not only promotes great singing and dancing but respect, confidence, family and teamwork. Kathy Siranosian, editor, Sandwich School News said about the group on the website, “The schools in Sandwich are filled with dedicated educators and bright, talented and enthusiastic students like those highlighted in this video . . . and it’s gratifying for me to know this website is helping them get a little more of the recognition they deserve.” <http://sandwichschoolnews.com/2012/06/the-creation-of-sandwich-soul-video/>.

This is Sandwich Soul’s third annual coffeehouse style performance and a move to a larger venue as each year the audience has grown. As Sandwich High School’s Advanced Show Choir, the concert will include various duets, solos, and small group numbers. “There will also be songs that honor and celebrate our wonderful town of Sandwich,” commented Melinda Lasit, Sandwich Soul Choral Music Director.

“This concert is a fundraiser for Sandwich Soul to raise money for their trip to compete in New York City this spring. It is a not to be missed concert for so many good reasons and we are so proud to be part of it”, stated Cindy Russell, Sandwich 375 Committee Chair.
